Kakuro puzzles are like a cross between a crossword and a Sudoku puzzle. Instead of letters, each block contains the digits 1 through 9. The same digit will never repeat within a word. If you add the digits in a word, the sum will be the number shown in the clue. Clues are shown on the left and right sides of "across" words, and on the top and bottom sides of "down" words.

I don't care who does the electing as long as I get to do the nominating -- Boss Tweed

Narwhal walked into a redhouse and declaimed, "The moon is more useful than the sun." "Why?" he was asked. "Because at night we need the light more."
