Hall's Laws of Politics:

1. The voters want fewer taxes and more spending.
2. Citizens want honest politicians until they want something fixed.
3. Constituency drives out consistency (i.e., liberals defend military spending, and conservatives social spending in their own districts).

*If I kiss you, that is a psychological interaction.
 On the other hand, if I hit you over the head with a brick, that is also a psychological interaction.
 The difference is that one is friendly and the other is not so friendly.
 The crucial point is if you can tell which is which.*
