Kingdom of mazes

Author Gleb Ganin
2015

Long ago, in a very distant kingdom, there lived a ...

... Master
of mazes...

... King ...

... His life was very good until he met the King ...

He was not bad,
but sooo conceited - the most in life,
the king wanted to be famous...

But he did not know exactly how to do it, until met
the Master of mazes ...

... And then
it all began ...

... Learning about the capabilities of the Master, the King ordered him to create a maze-dungeon ...

... From which no one could escape,
or somehow
get out...

... The fact that the king was very conceited.
Wanted to be famous.
But no matter how he tried, nothing worked ...

... And then the king ordered the Master
to make the most complex and largest garden maze
of bushes and trees ...

or head from
his shoulders

Battle with neighboring kingdoms he lost, did not have a untold wealth and love him too
no luck ...

Master thought about it... - there is no choice. And painted maze

or head from
his shoulders

... And no one ever saw him again.
He could not find his way back.

... And then,
to these drawings...

Master thought about it... - there is
no choice. And painted maze

... and not a simple labyrinth
- a maze of the mind!

... And because learning about the unusual ability to Master, the king ordered him
to build a maze ...

... And then the gardener planted a forest of shrubs and trees in a certain order ...

... after 5 years,
the maze was ready ...

One day the king went for a walk in garden-maze...

... Masons built the dungeon ...

... So complex that no one could pass it ...

That even the smartest
people in the world,
could not solve it ...

And after about him no one heard.

... entered...

People came to the palace to personally see
the new miracle.

... Everywhere
heard oohs and aahs,
but entered
into the maze
only blacksmith...

... Chief Adviser to the King decided to personally check out...

Came into it ... and nobody never saw him again.

or head from
his shoulders

... Master worked for a year and finally created
the maze of the mind!

created a tangled maze
as requested the king...

... the complexity
of the maze ...

... People heard about the impenetrable maze ...

... But go into it, no one dared to ...

... And then...

... And then ...

Send into the maze of the mind of all prisoners. And to someone who be able to find a way out, the king promised a pardon and freedom...

... Many
prisoners gone
into the maze...

... But none of them
never returned.

In search of happiness, to there went:
a astrologer, personal chef King, chief groom and even a blind man, who begged before
near the monastery...

... The king promised ...

... The King has ordered ... To the one who be able to find a way out of

the maze of the mind
- receives a half the kingdom and the beautiful daughter in the bargain.
Or vice versa ...

... Initially, the people who wanted to get into the maze, was more than enough...

... First into the maze went knights and other valiant warriors ...

then, the merchants
and the aristocracy,

... And after, ordinary citizens of the kingdom ...

... Only the Master could find a way out of this web of moves ...

... Whatever it was, the people who wanted to conquer the maze of the mind was a lot, but who got out of it - was no one...

... King was treacherous, and did not wanted to share the kingdom with anyone. Fearing that the mystery of the maze will be known to someone else, the king decided to kill the master ...

He summoned the executioner, but no one answered, because the executioner also went into the maze, and as others - did not return

... Then the king summoned the guard.
But no one answered. In the castle there was no one who could cause harm to the Master. And not only in the castle - the whole kingdom was empty.
There were only women, children and the elderly ...

... The terrified King looked around -
- finally understood what had done.
But it was too late ...

... Without delay, the king turned to the maze and soon disappeared from sight. This is the end of his story.

... But where? Where to hide?
Of course into the maze of the mind!

... Or the end of the whole Kingdom ...

... Then the king begged the Masters:
Tearfully asked to return all the residents of the kingdom.
Find them in the maze of the mind and bring back ...

... King heard these cries and immediately the fear crept to his heart and then he like mad ran away...

... Around the castle had already gathered women, they wanted to know what had happened to their husbands, sons and fathers? All of them had shouted angrily and called the King to the answer ...

... Master thought about it... -
- there is no choice.
And painted the maze ...

... Three days and three nights the people of the kingdom were on duty at the entrance and, finally, on the fourth day the Master came out of the maze, and behind him were almost all of the lost citizens of the kingdom

Could not find only the executioner and the blind man who begged near the monastery...

... The King was so happy about the favorable outcome therefore, without hesitation he handed Master his crown, right in front of all residents and said:
- Master your maze of the mind conquered the whole Kingdom, and therefore this crown is rightfully belongs you - and gave the golden crown

... That's a fairy tale ending.
Who understood - well done! Who does not understand - will grow cabbage!

... And all of them lived happily.
Master ruled the kingdom, and all the enemies that threatened the kingdom he sent to the maze of the mind from which no one returned ...

... Two boys ...

... Two girls ...

... A year later the master and Princess gave birth to...

... Then the Master and Princess were married, in the local council, the residents of the kingdom returned to their homes, to their families. King went to a small house which was remote from the lock and began there to grow cabbage ...

Since then, much time has passed but alive to this day the rumor about the distant beautiful Kingdom, the road to which was the florid and ornate.

Barbarians repeatedly tried to capture, conquer or destroy the Kingdom florid paths, but no one could find a correct way, or at least a way out of the maze of the mind.

The moral of this tale:

Perhaps, our life is not correct, like a maze, entangled continuous deadlocks.
But there is a solution! And a true Master knows it, the desperate situations just does not happen.

Well, I want to congratulate you if you have passed
All this book, fully - I dedicate to you in the Master!
