A Galileo could no more be elected president of the United States than he could be elected Pope of Rome. Both high posts are reserved for men, favored by God with an extraordinary genius for swathing the bitter facts of life in bandages of self-illusion.

INSTRUCTIONS: These hint grids reveal the order in which the squares were solved by my computer. It's not necessarily the same order you would use, but it's probably close. Follow the numbered squares in order 1,2,3... until you find a square you haven't solved yet. This square (or the one or two immediately after it) is a good candidate to solve next.
